

Information Workshop

Sharps and contaminated waste for non-medical industries.

Background:

Sharps and contaminated waste present hazards to many workers in the day to day operation of business. This course identifies waste streams, specific hazards, handling, storage and disposal of hazardous waste, risk controls , questions and scenarios.

Timing:

2 hour workshop

Who should attend:

All workers, managers and supervisors who are exposed to or control workers (or volunteers) who may be exposed to sharps and contaminated waste in their workplace.

Workshop Overview:

Managing sharps and contaminated waste involves risk assessment, control measures, designing safe workplaces, obligations under the WHS Act, guidelines for managing hazards in the workplace.

Questions and scenarios

Provider:

Paragon Work Health Safety
- Member of Health and Safety Institute of Australia

Facilitator:

Peter McWhinnie
Graduate Diploma of Organisational Safety Management (Uni SA), Cert IV in Transport, Warehousing and Logistics, Diploma of Occupational Health and Safety, Diploma of Quality Auditing, Nationally accredited workplace trainer and assessor (Cert IV TAE), Diploma of Business, Diploma of Management.
Experience: transport fleet manager, truck driver for MC, heavy machinery operator, parks and gardens maintenance, long term shift worker.

